1852. GREAT CURE FOR DYSPEPSIAL ANOTHER SCIENTIFIC WONDER!

Da. J. S. HOUGE TON'S

The true Digestive Fluid, or Gastric Juice. DREPARED from Mennet, or the fourth Stomach of the Ox, after directions of Baron Liebig, the great Physiological Chemist, by J. S. Houghton M. D., Philadelphia, Pa.

Pepsin is the chief element, or great digesting principle of the Gastric Juice, the solvent of the Food, the purifying, preserving, and stimulating agent of the stomach and intestince. It is extractand sumulating agent of the stomach and intestifies. It is extracted from the digestive stomach of the Ox, thus forming an Artificial Digestive Fluid, precisely like the nutural Gastric Juice is its Chemical powers, and formishing a complete and perfect substitute for it. By the aid of this preparation, the pains and evils of indegestion and dyspepsia are removed, just as they would be by a healthy stomach. It is doing wonders for Dyspeptica, curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline, and Dyspeptic Consemption, supposed to be on the verge of the grave. The scientific evidence upon which it is based, is in the highest degree curious and

SCIENTIFIC EVIDENCE. Baron Liebig in his celebrated work on Animal Chemistry, says: An Artificial Digestive Fluid analogous to the Gastric Juice, may be readily prepared from the mucous membrane of the stomach of the Calf, in which various articles of food, as meat and eggs, will be softened, changed, and digested, just in the same transer so they

Dr. Combe, in his valuable writing on the "Physiology of Dissition." observes that a "diminution of the due quantity of the trastrie Juice is a prominent and all-prevailing cause of Dyspensin."
and be states that "a distinguished professor of medicine in London, who was severely affected with this complaint, finding everything else to fail, had recourse to the Gestrie Juice, obtained from the stormens of living snimels, which proved completely successful."

Dr. Genlam, author of the formers works on "Venerative Dest." Dr. Graham, author of the famous works on "Venetaine Det." saye: "It is a remarkable fact in physiology, that the stomach of animals, macerated in water, impact to the fluid the property of dissolving various articles of food, and of effecting a kind of artificial

Dr. Simon's great work, the "Chemistry of Man," (Les & Elsn-shard, Philadelphia, 1846, pp. 321-2) savet "The discovery of PFP SIN forms a new era in the chemical history of Direction. Fro recent experiments, we know that food is dissolved as rapidly is artificial digestive fluid, prepared from Pepsin, as it is in the nata Gastrie Juice itself."

The fact that an Artificial Digestive Fluid, or Gastric Juice, per fectly resembling the natural fluid, may be readily prepared, lots not admit of question. The only wonder is that it has not before been applied to the cure of Indigestion and Dyspepsia—so naturally does such a use suggest itself to the mind.

As A DYSPEPSIA CURER,

Dr. Haughten's Pepsin has produced the most marvellous effects, in caring cases of Deblity, Emeciation Nervous Decline, and Dyne s. New York, and Boston alone. These were nearly all desperate
